

Youngevity – Talking Points

These are some helpful talking points for you to use.

I have been introduced by a friend to something that is working wonders for me and giving me the added boost that I need in the day. Do you have a minute?

Have you ever heard the health lecture called “Dead Doctors Don’t Lie?”

“If I lend you this CD, will you listen to it?”

“Do you take vitamin supplements?”

“Do you like chocolate?”

“Are you as healthy as you would like to be?”

“Are you making all the money you want?”

Here are some other points of interest:

- Market place is huge
The vitamin supplement industry is expected to hit a trillion dollars per year. Every 6 seconds a baby boomer is turning 50 years old. What do they want? They want to feel better, look younger and live longer. Sales are exploding worldwide.
- Perfect product to market
The 90 Essential Nutrients are called essential because your body does not produce them. You need to supplement with a full spectrum to give your body what it needs.
- 19,000 mg per bottle guaranteed in each bottle of Majestic Earth minerals. You can tell that these are pure Plant Derived Colloidal Minerals because, it does contain, all the minerals. When compared with other minerals on the market – they leave out the mercury, aluminum, lead and arsenic.
 - Did you know that Arsenic is naturally found in the liver? Do you remember your grandparents eating liver and onions? I bet they didn’t get carpal tunnel syndrome.
 - Did you know that Aluminum is the second most abundant mineral in the soil? And, eating two slices of cucumber gives you more than what is in our bottle.
- Our Triple Treat Chocolate is known as the healthy chocolate. It has an ORAC score of 19,936 per piece. Not per box, like others on the market. The best thing about the great tasting chocolate in that has probiotics to promote healthy intestinal flora.
